Your prayers are appreciated and requested for:

⇒ Those who are suffering pain after the loss of a loved one.

- Terry Parsons and family

(loss of Mike Parson)

- Darlene Wake and family (loss of Bonnie)

We are saddened to announce the unexpected death of Terry Parson's husband, Mike Parsons, last week. Please rally around Terry, our faithful leader of Pathfinders and Adventurers for many years! No service will be held per his request. Condolences may be sent to Terry and family at 129 Delaney Dr., Chico, 95928.

As Darlene Wake has many dear friends still in our PAC community, we ask for your prayers as she grieves the recent loss of her daughter, Bonnie Wake Baunsbach of Everett, Washington. As cancer took its toll, Bonnie had come 'home' to Northern California to enjoy the loving care of her brother & wife, Bill & Rae Wake, and her mother, Darlene Wake. Bonnie is survived by 2 daughters, Wren & Tyler, and 3 brothers, Bill, Bob & Bryon. The Wake Family would be so encouraged by our cards & notes. Thank you so much! Cards and emails can be sent to 8448 Solitude Ct., Antelope, CA 95843-darlene@wake-family.com.

Save the Date—Love Paradise event is on October 20 at 8 am. Mark your calendar and join us as we show love around the town of Paradise.

Welcome—We are happy to welcome Richard and Zetta Gore to our PAC family! Richard and Zetta met when teens on the staff at Pine Springs Ranch Summer Camp in 1977. They got married at the PSR Church Bowl in 1979 and lived at PSR for the next 20 years.

When their 2 sons (Levi and Zack) were in Academy, Pacific Union College called Richard to work as their Housing Manager and Zetta began working at the campus radio station, that is, until she decided to go back to college to get her BSN degree.

After working for PUC for 10 years, God guided them to Cottonwood, AZ, where Richard was a self-employed Gen. Contractor and Zetta worked at the nearby Medical Center for 8 years. However, their lives were changed when their first grand daughter was born back in California. With a desire to be near their children and grandchildren, God led them to Paradise in 2017, where Zetta worked for Feather River Hosp. and Richard continued as a Contractor. After escaping and losing their home to the Camp Fire in 2018, they believe God directed them to return to Paradise in 2020 to rebuild.

Richard and Zetta have been married 44 years, relish time with their 4 granddaughters (with another on the way); they love praising the Lord through music, do some traveling, and they enjoy letting God lead them to works of service. Each day they thank the Lord and celebrate coming back “home” to Paradise. Welcome home to our PAC community, Richard and Zetta!

Welcome—We are happy to welcome Patricia (Adams) Versteeg to our PAC Family! Patty is transferring in from Valley Center SDA Church, CA. She is Pastor Tom Adams' sister. Patty lived in Paradise for a long time a while ago! She worked in the old Feather River Hospital in Administration when she lived here and in the new Feather River Hospital in the Pharmacy. She also worked in a dental office for several years. She enjoys paper crafts as a hobby. Patty is happy to be back in the PAC community where she knows a lot of people. She is enjoying being in our Community in Christ Sabbath School class also. Welcome back home to our PAC community, Patricia!"

Many of our Elders will be contributing to the visitation responsibilities on behalf of our Pastoral Staff.

PRIDE OF A COUGAR!

Thank you for your prayers & support!

Life on campus is busy and full of energy as students are getting back into the swing of their academic schedules. The soccer and volleyball teams are putting on a display of grit and tenacity each week.

Our school family was proud to witness one of our Juniors, Jayden Stabel, dedicating his life to Christ as he was baptized on Sep. 9. We ask for continued spiritual growth for our students as baptismal classes will be offered in the near future at PAA. It is exciting to see how Christ has blessed our Academy students academically, athletically, socially, and most important spiritually.
